THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY
OWNERSHIP

The Chocolate Factory is owned by the Regional Industrial Development Corporation (RIDC), a major force in economic development in Southwestern Pennsylvania. RIDC’s mission is to transform properties that were a part of the region’s past into spaces for companies that are driving the economy of the future. RIDC catalyzes and supports economic growth through high-quality job creation, real estate development and financing of projects that advance the public interest.

RIDC has a flexible model that emphasizes partnership with the tenants and occupants of their parks, seeking to meet their unique needs through development and sale of property, leasing space that accommodates companies throughout their life cycle, and helping to arrange third party public financing.
